1. KMT guerrillas have warned Chinese trading between Mandalay and Kyuhkok (98-04; 24-04) not to smuggle petroleum products and motor accessories into Communist China. This warning, coupled with the belief that KMT guerrillas are posted along the Kutkai-Kyuhkok road to seize and destroy trucks carrying such supplies, has frightened Chinese traders in Mandalay from doing further business with China.
2. The smuggling of trucks into Communist China has entirely stopped as the result of an order issued by the Special Commissioner, Lashio, binding all truckers traveling to the China border not to dispose of their trucks to Communist China.¹
